

BRONZE & IVORY DANCE OF THE DISCS

By Marcel-Andre Bouraine (1886-1948)

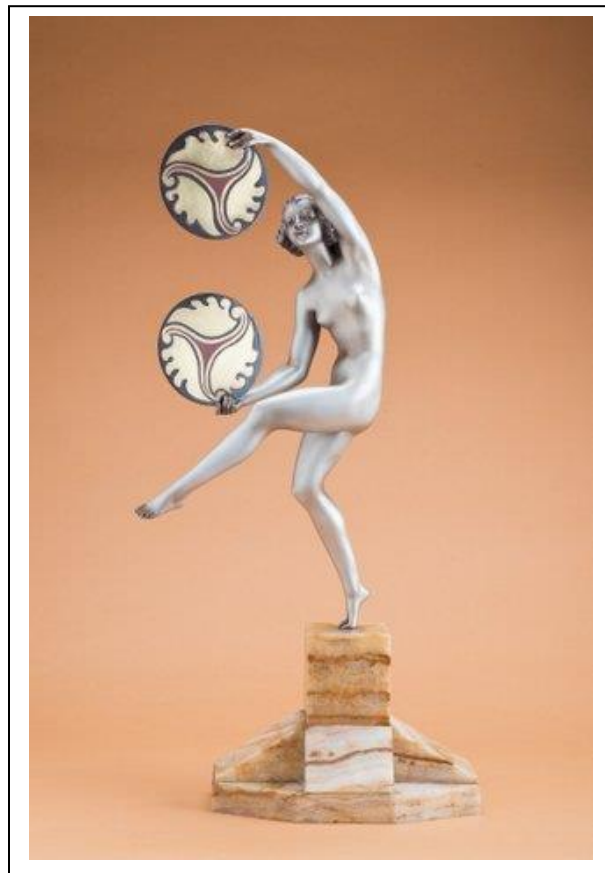

Circa 1925

A silvered bronze nude female dancer, balancing on one foot, holding a large flat brightly decorated disc in each hand. She rests on a brown onyx base.

Height : 58 cms

Signatures : Signed Bouraine on the top of the pedestal.

Reference : Bryan Catley, Art Deco and Other Figures, Antique Collectors' Club, London, 1978, pictured pg. 55.

Marcel Bouraine was born in Pontoise (Seine-et Oise, France). He exhibited his works at all the major Parisian salons. His works were cast at several different foundries : Susse Freres, Edmond Etling & Cie, Le Verrier, and Goldscheider (in Paris).

BURR & MUIR

Cape Town 27-21-4181269

Partners : Geoff Burr & Graham Muir