

'EGYPTIAN DANCER'

By Demetre Chiparus

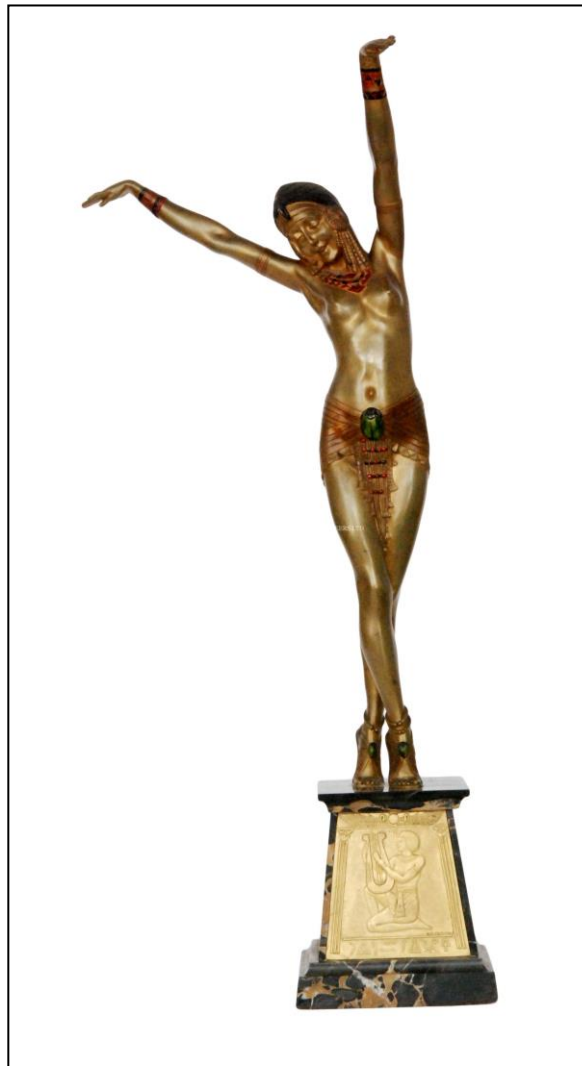

Circa 1920

A large gilt bronze dancer wearing a typical Egyptian headdress, necklace, sandals, and a toga, her arms outstretched above her head. The base has an inset bronze plaque with a typical Egyptian figure in low relief.

Height : 73 cms

Signatures : Engraved 'DH Chiparus' on the marble base, and on the bronze plaque.

References : Alberto Shayo, Chiparus Master of Art Deco, Second Edition, Abbeville Press Publishers, 1999, pg 175.

BURR & MUIR

Cape Town 27-21-4181269

Partners : Geoff Burr & Graham Muir