‘Me ne infischio – La Studentessame’

Designed by Helen Konig Scavini for Lenci in 1934

A LENCI EARTHENWARE FIGURE OF 'Me ne infischio -La Studentessame’ (‘I couldn’t care less – the Student’), designed by HELEN KONIG SCAVINI, in the 1930s, modelled as a young lady wearing a black (‘Mussolini’) dress, tartan cap and scarf, black shoes, seated on a low bookshelf, filled with books, and an open book at her feet.

Height	:	38 cms
Signatures	:	Painted ‘Lenci’ mark and ‘Made in Italy Torino 1938’ on the base, and impressed Helen Scavini at the back.
Reference	:	Alfonso Panzetta, Le Ceramiche Lenci, Catalogo dell’ Archivo storico 1928-1964, Umberto Allemandi & C, pg. 187, fig. 489.

The most desirable of all the Lenci figures are those designed by Helen Konig Scavini. She often dressed her figures in black 'Mussolini' dresses and shoes, and La Studentessema has just such an outfit. As a Lenci figure La Studentessema ranks high in value, as can be seen from the price indication below.

This figure is in immaculate condition.
