

‘COIFFEUSE’

By Louis Majorelle
Circa 1900

An Art Nouveau dressing table (coiffeuse), the working surface inlaid with branches and bugs, the mirror surround inlaid with irises and foliage. The structure very typically in the style of Majorelle’s best Art Nouveau designs.

Height	: 125 cms
Width	: 71 cms
Depth	: 52 cms
Reference	: Alistair Duncan, Louis Majorelle – Master of Art Nouveau Design, Thames & Hudson, London, 1991, pictured page 99.

Over the past 20 years we have found very little Majorelle furniture in South Africa. We currently have a 4-piece 'Ombelles' lounge suite in stock, and a single 'Attacia' armchair, and the 'COIFFEUSE'.
