

'NELLA'

Designed by Helen Konig Scavini for Lenci in 1931

A LENCI EARTHENWARE FIGURE OF 'NELLA' BY HELEN KONIG SCAVINI, 1930s, modelled as a young lady wearing a black dress and red beret, seated on a bench, a book by her side, and a frog perched on the back of the bench.

- Height : 24 cms
- Signatures : Painted 'Lenci' mark and 'Made in Italy' on the base
- Reference : Alfonso Panzetta, Le Ceramiche Lenci, Catalogo dell' Archivio storico 1928-1964, Umberto Allemandi & C, pg. 163, fig. 323.

The most desirable of all the Lenci figures are those designed by Helen Konig Scavini. She often dressed her figures in 'Mussolini' dresses with cloche caps, and Nella has just such an outfit. She ranks high in desirability, as can be seen from the price indication below.

This figure has had some minor restoration to some of the fingertips.
